

Grace Alone — Vetting Demo

Jørn Halseth

Chapter 1

Salvation by Grace Alone

The heart of the gospel is that salvation is the free gift of God, received by faith and never earned by human effort. Paul makes this unmistakable when he writes that it is by grace we have been saved, through faith — and that this is not of ourselves, but the gift of God, so that no one may boast (Ephesians 2:8-9).

The word the New Testament uses for this unmerited favor is charis G5485 χάρις, grace — the gift freely given, owed to no one, that God lavishes on those who believe.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

— John 3:16

Because the gift is grace, the proper response is not striving but trust: we rest in what God has already done, and salvation remains his work from first to last.

How this was made

This study is the author's own work — what it says, and where it goes, are his. It was composed with junifye, with an AI assistant as a tool, and draws its Scripture and original-language studies (Greek, Hebrew, and cross-references) from Darash (Hebrew darash, “to seek, inquire, study”) — a platform for reading the Bible in its original languages.

Both junifye (for composing documents) and Darash (for studying Scripture in the original tongues) are available as MCP tools — usable from Claude Desktop or any AI assistant that can run them.

You are warmly invited to study the Word in its original languages with Darash, to read this and every other title freely alongside Scripture in the Bibleread app, and to browse the whole catalogue in the public library.
